

8 Days Guided Motorcycle Tour in Corsica

8 days / 7 nights

Set off with one of our guides and visit the most beautiful sites in Corsica. Superb roads with endless straights and bends in breathtaking surroundings.
You'll be amazed at the variety of landscapes, the gastronomy and the welcome you'll receive...

YOUR PROGRAMME

Day 1 - From Bastia to Saint Florent

Arriving in Bastia, your day will take you on a tour of Cap Corse. You'll start off on the gentler coast, stopping off at Erbalunga and then Maccinaggio before tackling the crossing of the Cape. Then, via France's leading lobster fishing port, you'll follow the coastline and its cliffs, discovering some magnificent coves. You can stop off at Canari or Albo before reaching the island's most beautiful paoline tower and its black pebble beach. You'll soon come within sight of Corsica's wine capital, before reaching your evening stopover and its white sandy beaches.

Overnight in a three-star hotel in Saint-Florent.

Approximately 130 km

Day 2 - From Saint Florent to Calvi

Follow the guide through the Agriates, a protected area of outstanding beauty. You'll take one bend after another through some stunning scenery. You'll take little-known mountain roads through olive groves, lined with cactus and prickly pear. You'll reach typical little villages, and keep an eye out for cows, which will almost certainly be roaming free. The landscape will then take on a lunar and truly desert-like quality, before returning to the Balagne and offering you breathtaking scenery. Take a break in Belgodère on the village square in front of the church, before continuing on the craftsmen's route through some beautiful hilltop villages. Later, you'll reach Calvi, with its marina and imposing citadel.

Day 3 - From Calvi to Porto

You'll climb back up to the Palmarella pass, where the views are breathtaking. The descent continues between scrubland and cliffs, through a succession of small bends and charming villages where you'll want to take a coffee break! You'll soon catch sight of a superb little village by the sea.
You'll reach the famous Calanche de Piana and an ancient Greek-influenced village with numerous churches. You'll skirt the seafront before heading inland. Watch out for the pigs that can cross! You'll soon reach the chestnut capital and descend into the magnificent Gorges, where you're sure to come across herds of goats.

Approximately 150 km

Overnight in a 3-star hotel in Porto.

Day 4 - From Porto to Corte

That day, you'll reach a charming village known for its Genoese bridges and olive groves. You'll reach Corsica's highest road point. Then it's back down the winding road to the shores of a lake. The magnificent Scala di Santa Regina takes you almost all the way to Castagniccia, where the winding roads continue for many kilometres. You'll discover the famous Restonica
